

Bartelt Aviation Press Release

Bartelt Aviation becomes the Authorized Mooney Service Center for Southwest Michigan!

Sturgis, Michigan, June 7, 2007 – Bartelt Aviation becomes the Authorized Mooney Service Center for Southwest Michigan. The authorization allows Bartelt to perform warranty work on late model aircraft in addition to servicing the general fleet. The privilege also allows the firm to purchase parts direct from the manufacturer. Having a variety of parts in stock will reduce down time for the customer.

"This alliance reaffirms our commitment to the aviation community. Teaming up with Mooney Airplane Company enhances our portfolio of services, which in turn adds to our one-stop shop philosophy. Aligning our firm with New Aircraft Manufacturers will provide significant advantages for years to come.

I personally would like to take this opportunity to thank Mooney Airplane Company for allowing us to join their team. Together, we have a common goal to provide premium service and support that Mooney aircraft owners deserve." States John Bartelt, President of Bartelt Aviation.
