Dear John,

Thank you for your diligence and hard work in brokering the sale of my airplane. After attempting for some time to market it myself, to no avail, I turned to your professional services to help expedite a transaction. Your expert attention to detail and excellent communications facilitated a deal that would have otherwise not occurred.

I will highly recommend you to anyone in need of aircraft brokerage services. I hope you and yours have a very prosperous new year.

All the best,

Bart Middlebrooks
