Bartelt Aviation Press Release

Bartelt Aviation adds “Saratoga King” Domain name to their World Wide Web presence.

Sturgis, Michigan, November 7th, 2003 - Bartelt Aviation registers two domain names that link to the company's web site via the World Wide Web.

www.SaratogaKing.com and www.Saratoga-King.com

These two domains link directly to our company site. The new domains will give our new customers that may not be familiar with the exact spelling of our company name an alternate method to visit our web site. Since Bartelt Aviation is known as the “Saratoga King” throughout the aviation community, I believe these domains will enhance traffic to our web site.

Bartelt Aviation is known as the Saratoga King because we are the World's leader for pre-owned Saratoga sales and acquisition. The company has built a lot of good will as the Saratoga King since the early 1980's. We also specialize in custom refurbishing and modifications for the customer who desires a like new pre-owned Saratoga.

The Bartelt team takes great pride for being recognized as the Saratoga King, but also understands the responsibility that goes along with it. The number of units sold is one thing, but it's a real honor for being known for having high standards and only selling quality pre-owned Saratogas to the aviation community.” States John Bartelt, President of Bartelt Aviation, Inc.
