Re John Bartelt
Bartelt Aviation Inc

I had the honour and Privilege of purchasing a Meridian Aircraft from John Bartelt of Bartelt Aviation, Inc. The aircraft was represented exactly as we found it too be and every detail before the purchase and after was handled perfectly with the human touch of a real professional. I have purchased many aircraft during my 50 years of flying and have never worked with anyone as professional and detail orientated.

John even after the sale continues to follow up to be sure every aspect of the transfer of charts and XM subscriptions became easy to handle. John does a very thorough job of inspecting and documenting every aspect of the pre-buy, the sale and the post-sale delivery.

I would be happy to talk to anyone about my experience with John Bartelt.
