John:

I would be please to write you a letter of recommendation. You have always been professional and honest in our business relationship and have always been helpful. Thank you for all your help during the sale my aircraft.

Thanks again for allowing me the opportunity to assist you with the sale of your aircraft. Your loyalty is very much appreciated. Would you be willing to write me a letter of recommendation that I could post on my website? The letter could be a quick email since you are busy with tax season.

Regards,

John Bartelt
