John:

Thank you for finding a Buyer for my personal aircraft. I was initially reluctant to respond to the Bartelt Aviation letter, but glad I did. Thank you for ensuring the experience was with high transparency and no pressure on me to sell. You gave me time to think about process; which was important to me. It was refreshing to know that you actually had a customer looking for an SR22 and your inquiry was not just an attempt to broker my aircraft.

I appreciate your professionalism throughout the process. It was obvious that you wanted to make sure the transaction was fair for everyone involved. Bartelt Aviation is a fantastic organization that I will surely refer to others!

Thank you,
